

Fall 2009 Speaker Series

Thursday, September 3rd | 11:45am HH 212

“The Causes and Consequences of Food Insecurity Among Seniors in the United States”
Dr. Craig Gundersen, Associate Professor at the University of Illinois

Craig Gundersen is an Associate Professor in the Department of Agricultural and Consumer Economics at the University of Illinois. Dr. Gundersen is widely published in leading journals across a wide variety of fields including: Journal of Human Resources, Journal of Health Economics, American Journal of Agricultural Economics, Journal of Nutrition, Pediatrics, American Journal of Public Health, Demography, Journal of Population Economics, Food Policy, and Southern Economic Journal.

Tuesday, October 6th | 11:45am HH 204

“Understanding Substance Use Disorders”
Dr. Igor Koutsenok, Psychiatrist, UCSD

Igor Koutsenok, MD, MS, is Director of the University of California San Diego, Center for Criminality & Addiction Research, Training & Application (CCARTA) and he has a full time faculty appointment at the UCSD Department of Psychiatry. Before joining UCSD, he worked in Bulgaria as Head of Department at the National Center for Addictions and Deputy Director of the Institute of Psychology. He has authored and co-authored over 30 scientific publications and book chapters, and has been invited as guest speaker and trainer to numerous conferences and professional gatherings nationwide and in more than 15 countries.

|

Tuesday, November 3th 6pm Storm Hall 145

“A Taste of Motivational Interviewing”
Dr. Melinda Hohman, Professor and Coordinator of Undergrad Social Work Program

Melinda Hohman is a Professor at the School of Social Work, San Diego State University, San Diego, where she has worked since 1995. She has been a trainer in Motivational Interviewing (MI) since 1999, training community social workers, Child Welfare workers, probation officers, and addiction counselors across Southern California. Dr. Hohman is also currently the Project Director of the Cal-METRO Project that is being conducted through the UCSD Department of Psychiatry/Center for Criminality, Addiction, Research and Training Application (CCARTA).

