Do I need to take the GRE and when should I take it?

Yes, the GRE is an SDSU requirement and all MSW and MSW/MPH applicants are required to take the GRE as a condition of the application. The University requires all sections of the GRE to be completed prior to the admissions deadline in order for your application to meet core graduate application requirements. Test information and registration is available online, at www.ets.org/gre, or by phone, at (800) 473-2255. All registration is done through the ETS website, not through SDSU Testing Services.

*SDSU Testing Services typically proctors the GRE General Test Monday through Saturday, at 8:00 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Some dates and times may not be available due to the administration of the PRAXIS and TOEFL exams in the same facility. Testing dates and times may also be affected by campus holidays and closures \(https://studentaffairs.sdsu.edu/testofc/Office_closures.pdf\)

The Graduate Record Exam (GRE)

All students applying to a graduate degree at SDSU must take the Revised General GRE exam. GRE scores must be sent directly from Educational Testing Services \(ETS\) (<http://www.ets.org/>) using SDSU's Institution Code 4682. Please note the university requires that all sections (verbal, quantitative, analytical writing) of the GRE be completed.

To register for the exam contact one of the following three:

- Thomson Prometric Testing Service at 800-473-2255
- SDSU Testing Office (<http://studentaffairs.sdsu.edu/testofc/>) at 619-594-0968
- Go online to: <http://www.ets.org/gre>

A computer based version of the exam is offered Monday through Saturday: SDSU Computer Based Testing Center (<http://studentaffairs.sdsu.edu/testofc/CBT.html>) . GRE scores may be waived for those who hold a master's from an accredited university. Check with Graduate Admissions (<http://arweb.sdsu.edu/es/admissions/contact.html>).
